We thank these generous Friends, listed below, who gave their time and expertise to this important project. We hope they will continue to evaluate future Quaker literature regularly as to its suitability level based on the original criteria of the reader's acquaintance with Quakerism. Thus we plan to send a list of all new publications on Quakers and Quakerism annually to our experts for evaluation and post their assessments on the web so that the new pages are able to be easily added to this note - book.

We thank these generous Friends, listed below, who gave their time and expertise to this important project. Our goal is to present a continuing evaluation of Quaker titles within the first five years of publication to enable Friends meetings without their own librarian to benefit from the professional expertise of our Friendly librarians. Thus we plan to send a list of all new publications on Quakers and Quakerism every three to five years to our experts for evaluation and post their assessments on the web and in subsequent editions of this pamphlet.
